Child Protection & Welfare Bureau Punjab is providing commendable services to the destitute and neglected children. Apart from providing rescue services, it also plays pivotal role in rehabilitation of vulnerable children and thereby turn them into productive members of society.

The Government of Punjab is fully committed to support the Bureau to provide safe haven to Destitute & Neglected children. The outreach of the Bureau is being expanded to the whole of the province. After establishing Child Protection Institutions at Divisional levels, the Child Protection Units are being established at district level for quick response to marginalized children.

I appreciate services rendered by the dedicated team of the Bureau and pray that may Allah Almighty give us courage for protection, shelter, education and rehabilitation of such vulnerable children.

Doctor Kiran Khurshid
Director General

The wealth of a nation is not so much in its economic and natural resources but lies more decidedly in the quality and intellect of its children. It is the children who shape the destiny of a nation and determine its role in the world. I joined this organization as Director General to do something substantial and worthwhile for the most vulnerable children in the society and avert the hardships they face in the form of violence, abuse and exploitation. Quite recently, the Child Protection & Welfare Bureau has become a symbol of protection for child rights and welfare of the rights of destitute and neglected children and I feel proud to be part a part of this socially responsive Organization.

Our religion teaches us to treat the young with care and affection. Pakistan is a signatory to the UN Convention for the Rights of Children, and as such it is our duty to safeguard the rights of children and their future. We endeavor to achieve the goal of protection, rehabilitation and welfare of the destitute and neglected children and utilize infinite potential of energy, capability and enthusiasm of these children and direct it towards an appropriate direction.

May Allah grant us the courage to selflessly serve these marginalized and destitute children who need our care and guide us to train them in a constructive way for nation building.

Therefore, these children have very little interest in the education. Child Protection and Welfare Bureau has made special arrangements for such children to turn them into useful citizens. CP&WB has signed an MOU with Punjab Vocational and Training Council (PVTC) in order to provide technical training courses to the vulnerable children. PVTC has established Technical and Training Center in the premises of Child Protection & Welfare Bureau where different technical courses are offered for boys and girls separately with separate classes. There are electrical, mechanical, mobile repairing, tailoring courses for boys and cooking, beautician, tailoring and painting courses for girls offered. The duration for these courses is 3 to 6 months. PVTC offers these courses with job placement guarantee to the children on their successful completion of courses and once they attained the age of 18 years. Measures are also taken regarding internship for the children regarding their completed courses at PVTC.

Lahore

My name is Saba Anwar and I have been at Child Protection & Welfare Bureau for the last 12 years. I was about 6 years old when I came here. I lived happy life with my family but one day my father killed my mother for some unknown reasons. My father was sent to jail. I alongwith my other brothers and sisters left all alone. My elder brother was married and he left us as well. I left my house and was brought to the house of my grand mother. She started looking after us but she was very old. She brought us to the Child Protection & Welfare Bureau and I alongwith my two brothers and sister got admitted. It was a new place with new faces. But things started to change gradually. I started loving this place and start taking it as my home. I was given good care and attention over here. I got admission in the Child Protection School and start studying. This Bureau gave me a will to live and dream on. My teachers taught me very well and I got good marks in my Matriculation exam. I got admission in a college and passed Intermediate exam as well. Child Protection Bureau remained always very kind and affectionate to me. After my Intermediate exam, I got job in the Bureau. It was a dream to support my brothers and sisters and Bureau helped me in my cause by providing me job alongwith my studies. Now I am going to take admission in the Graduation and I wished to be successful in my life. This Bureau has fulfilled many of my dreams and this dream will also be fulfilled. I will surely try to pay back this Bureau has given me.
